

SLT Choir Volunteer

We are looking for friendly and outgoing people, with excellent communication skills and a calm and helpful manner to assist the Group Leader at our weekly Choir sessions.

This is a good opportunity to meet and interact with a wide range of people. You would need to be a good timekeeper, be punctual in your arrival time and be able to help for the duration of workshop.

As a Choir Workshop Volunteer, you will:

- Assist choir tutor in setting up the space.
- Greet participants on arrival and make them feel welcome
- Hand out any music sheets
- Taking part in the practical session and talking to participants.
- Clearing up materials and tidying the room
- Help packing chairs and tables away

Qualities we are looking for include:

- Willingness to assist the group leader in supporting a group of participants
- Ability to arrive punctually at the allocated time
- Meet and greet participants attending the Choir Workshop
- Befriend new participants who have not attended before, so they feel welcomed
- A mature, courteous and professional disposition
- An awareness of mental health issues
- It would be desirable to have previous volunteering experience, but not essential
- A sense of humour and an ability to stay calm and centred
- Willingness to abide by The Stuart Low Trust Code of Conduct

Please return your completed application to Rosie Gaston, Operations and Communications Manager, The Stuart Low Trust, Office 1, Jean Stokes Community Centre, Carnoustie Drive, London N1 0DX or email info@slt.org.uk

If you have any questions about the application, please contact Rosie on 020 7713 9304 or email info@slt.org.uk
